Defendants/Responding Parties

Proceeding under the Class Proceedings Act, 1992

FRESH AS AMENDED NOTICE OF MOTION
(MAREVA INJUNCTION)

The Plaintiffs will make a Motion, without notice, to a Judge of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice on Thursday, February 17, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. or as soon after that time as the Motion can be heard.

PROPOSED METHOD OF HEARING: The Motion is to be heard orally by Zoom videoconference.

THE MOTION IS FOR

- (a) An Order in the form attached as Schedule “A” (the “Draft Order”) granting an interim and interlocutory Mareva injunction in respect of the corporate Defendant, Freedom 2022 Human Rights and Freedoms (“Freedom 2022”) and the individual Defendants, Patrick King, Tamara Lich, Christopher Garrah, Nicholas St. Louis, and Benjamin Dichter (collectively, the “Individual Mareva Respondents” and together with Freedom 2022, the “Mareva Respondents”) from dissipating certain assets as identified in the Draft Order;
- (b) An Order abridging the time for service and filing of any materials relied on in support of this Motion;
- (c) An Order providing that service of any Order issued and any materials relied on in respect of this Motion shall be made in accordance with paragraph 15 of the Draft Order;
- (d) Such further and other relief as counsel may request and to this Honourable Court may seem just.

THE GROUNDS FOR THE MOTION ARE

2. This is a proposed class proceeding. The representative Plaintiffs seek the above relief against particular Defendants, the Mareva Respondents, in order to secure some prospect of recovering for the damages they and the proposed class members have incurred and continue to incur as a result of the actions of the Mareva Respondents in the ongoing Freedom Convoy protest.

Background

3. There are three proposed representative Plaintiffs: (1) Zexi Li, a 21-year-old University of Ottawa student and representative of the Resident Subclass; (2) Happy Goat Coffee Company Inc, an Ottawa business that owns and operates several coffee kiosks and café locations, some of which are in the “Occupation Zone” and representative of the Business Class; (3) Union: Local 613, an Ottawa business that operates a restaurant within the “Occupation Zone” and an additional representative of the Business Class, and (4) Geoffrey Devaney, a restaurant worker who works as an employee, and representative of the Employee Class.

4. The claims as articulated in the Plaintiffs’ Fresh as Amended Claim (the “Amended Claim”) include claims on behalf of a proposed class that includes three subclasses:

- (a) A proposed sub-class of residents who reside in the zone occupied by the Freedom Convoy protestors (the “Resident Class Subclass”);
- (b) A proposed class of businesses who operate in the zone occupied by the Freedom Convoy protestors and who have experienced business losses as a result of the Freedom Convoy protest (the “Business Subclass”); and
- (c) A proposed class of employees who work as employees in the zone occupied by the Freedom Convoy protestors and have lost wages as a result of the Freedom Convoy protest (the “Employee Subclass”).

5. The Defendants in the action are:

- (a) A corporate Defendant called Freedom 2022 Human Rights and Freedoms (“Freedom 2022”). The stated purpose of Freedom 2022 is “Advocacy against government.”
- (b) Several individual named Defendants including:
 - (i) The directors of Freedom 2022,
 - (ii) The organizers, leaders, or spokespeople of the Freedom Convoy protest,
 - (iii) Individuals involved in Freedom Convoy’s fundraising efforts or who otherwise have control over assets being used to facilitate the Freedom Convoy protest; and
- (c) Sixty-two John and Jane Does, who are the drivers of semi-tractor trucks or trailer trucks parked downtown in the Ottawa core, who have been idling continuously and blasting horns as a form of protest, or who are funding the Freedom Convoy protest through donations with the knowledge that the Freedom Convoy participants are acting unlawfully.

6. For the duration of the now three-week Freedom Convoy protest, the Defendants have, among other things:

- (a) Persisted in using vehicle horns and causing significant noise-related disturbances to the Plaintiffs and proposed class members (now in defiance of the Honking Injunction);

- (b) Occupied the roads and sidewalks of downtown Ottawa with idling vehicles and semi-permanent encampments;
 - (c) Polluted the air with diesel fumes from hundreds of idling vehicles and carried jerry cans of fuel to enable the vehicles to continue idling;
 - (d) Blocked access to sidewalks and roadways while being loud and aggressive demonstrators; and
 - (e) Set up port-a-potties, free food and drink stations, makeshift outdoor kitchens and firepits and performance spaces, all in downtown Ottawa.
7. The damages claimed against the Defendants in the Plaintiffs' Amended Claim are:
- (a) On behalf of the Resident Subclass, general damages for private nuisance and public nuisance, in the amount of $36 million for pain and suffering and psychological distress;
 - (b) On behalf of the Business Subclass, special damages for private nuisance and public nuisance, in the amount of $200 million for business losses;
 - (c) On behalf of the Employee Subclass, special damages for private nuisance and public nuisance, in the amount of $60 million for loss of wages; and
 - (d) Punitive damages in the amount of $10 million.

Mareva Injunction

8. A Mareva injunction against the specific assets of the Mareva Respondents is warranted and necessary in the circumstances of this case.

9. The Plaintiffs and proposed class members have a strong prima facie case against the Mareva Respondents.

10. The Plaintiffs and proposed class members will suffer irreparable harm if the relief is not granted. There is an immediate and substantial risk that any assets which may be used to satisfy judgment on behalf of the Plaintiffs and proposed class members, who have been directly harmed by the Mareva Respondents' conduct, will be dissipated and put beyond the reach of this Court.

11. The balance of convenience favours granting the Orders.

12. The relief sought on this motion is not sought as against all Defendants. It is sought only against the Mareva Respondents – a subset of Defendants who:

- (a) have engaged in and are continuing to engage in the tortious conduct described in the Amended Claim;
- (b) currently hold or have held assets that are being used to perpetrate the tortious conduct described in the Amended Claim; and
- (c) have demonstrated an intention to dissipate those assets in a manner that would put them beyond the reach of this Court.

13. Even with respect to this narrow group of Defendants, the Plaintiffs on this motion do not seek to freeze all of the Mareva Respondents' personal assets. Instead, the Plaintiffs seek only to freeze those assets held by the Mareva Respondents which are being used or which are intended to be used to further the tortious conduct described in the Amended Claim.

14. This Court has jurisdiction over each of the Mareva Respondents.

15. The Plaintiffs are representative plaintiffs in a class action, who are acting in the public interest, and may not be in a financial position to honour undertaking with respect to damages arising from the relief sought on this motion. As a result, no undertaking as to damages should be required in the circumstances of this case.

Substituted Service

16. The exact current locations and email addresses of several of the Mareva Respondents are currently unknown. However, all of the individual Mareva Respondents are presently in Ottawa and are therefore unlikely to receive any materials mailed to their home addresses. As a result, to the extent necessary, the Plaintiff seeks an order permitting substituted service of the Order sought and materials filed on this Motion in accordance with paragraph 15 of the Draft Order.

17. The Plaintiffs rely on the following authorities in support of this motion:

- (a) Rules 1.04, 1.05, 2.01, 2.03, 3.02, 16.04, 37.07(2), 37.17, and 40 of the Rules of Civil Procedure;
- (b) Section 101 of the Courts of Justice Act;
- (c) Such further and other grounds as the lawyers may advise.
